

EYES ONLY

27-28 December 1954

MEMO FOR THE RECORD OF THE CLARK COMMITTEE

25X1C Colonel Miller spent two very profitable days visiting the [REDACTED] Although he telescoped his allotted time in half at each location, he nevertheless asked some very pertinent questions (some prompted) and came away with an extremely favorable impression of the worth and accomplishment of this endeavor. On his return he stated as follows, "There, in my estimation, is one of the more worthwhile functions of your Agency. I am impressed with the economy, the success and the scope of this operation, and certainly feel that it contributes in large part to the success of your National Estimates and National Intelligence Surveys". (Colonel Miller has been most impressed with the latter, to date, as being the primary function of CIA). His only recommendation was that Field Office Chiefs in major field offices be elevated in grade to recompense them for their great responsibilities.

25X1A And now, gentle reader, let me quote another aside that Colonel Miller made in a moment of relaxation between trains as follows, "Bush, I've come to look upon you and [REDACTED] as a member of our team, and not even as working for the Agency. As such I have entrusted you with much of our confidences that I probably should have kept to myself. I hope I never find out you have betrayed any of these, as it would be the end of you!" (I did not attempt to interpret this last).

25X1A
[REDACTED]

25X1A

FLD/c

cc:

Inspector General

110145

EYES ONLY

27-28 December 1954

MEMO FOR THE RECORD OF THE CLARK COMMITTEE

Colonel Miller spent two very profitable days visiting [REDACTED] Field Offices [REDACTED]. Although he telescoped his allotted time in half at each location, he nevertheless asked some very pertinent questions (some prompted) and came away with an extremely favorable impression of the worth and accomplishment of this endeavor. On his return he stated as follows, "There, in my estimation, is one of the more worthwhile functions of your Agency. I am impressed with the economy, the success and the scope of this operation, and certainly feel that it contributes in large part to the success of your National Estimates and National Intelligence Surveys". (Colonel Miller has been most impressed with the latter, to date, as being the primary function of CIA). His only recommendation was that Field Office Chiefs in major field offices be elevated in grade to recompense them for their great responsibilities.

And now, gentle reader, let me quote another aside that Colonel Miller made in a moment of relaxation between trains as follows, [REDACTED] I've come to look upon you and [REDACTED] as a member of our team, and not even as working for the Agency. As such I have entrusted you with much of our confidences that I probably should have kept to myself. I hope I never find out you have betrayed any of these, as it would be the end of you!" (I did not attempt to interpret this last).

cc: [REDACTED]

Inspector General

This document has been approved for release through the HISTORICAL REVIEW PROGRAM of the Central Intelligence Agency.

Date

5/5/92

HRP

Approved For Release 2000/09/14 : CIA-RDP88-00374R000100260024-6

010145